

We relish the light cold weather after the frequent rains and long continued dull weather, though some days it has been hard to keep the house warm.
The mercury has been to within 6° of zero. At the 500 it has been 8° below zero.

My dear Papa,

I just write a line to say you have another grandson, born at 1.30 p.m. to day. All well so far.
