

Come Down.

Sept. 6/66.

My dear Mamma,

Yours enclosing stamps
came yesterday.

Dora and Charley are not coming quite soon but expect to be here in a day or two, after that I think of going to Oxford for a week or fortnight previous to going to town to look again for work.

I heard from Bob on Tuesday he is still at Downton and seems likely to remain there.

William Fogarty (J.F.'s brother who lives in Harcourt St.) wife has just died; ~~though~~ cause not mentioned. Though W.F. is younger than J.F., he had been married some years and had several children.

J.F. is in Dublin.

Let me know when my room is likely to be vacant.

I called on the Justices yesterday and saw them.

The rainfall here has been tremendous these last few days. I enclose a letter which you can read and return.
We have fires regularly every evening now.

Your affect. son

Francis J. Prendergast
On Wednesday's Times is an article on the picking up of "the cable" which would interest Papa.