OBITUARY*Death of Mrs. Lydia M. WELLS

Mrs. Lydia M. WELLS, widow of the late William A. WELLS, died yesterday morning, shortly before four o'clock, at her residence in this city No. 33 South Third Street, aged 67 years. She had been ill with pleurisy only one week, her general health having previously been good. She was the daughter of Thomas MOORE, a leading citizen of Reading in the early days of the ancient borough.. Her husband died some twenty-five years ago. He was known to almost everybody as 'Squire WELLS, and was the pioneer in the manufacture of fire brick in this section of the State, his establishment having been located on Canal street on the present site of McHose and Co's works. The late Dr. William MOORE of Womelsdorf (father of Capt Wm. G. MOORE, the well-known dealer in horses and mules, and of Thomas T. MOORE, tobacconist, of this city) was a brother of the deceased. Two other brothers, James and George, reside in Womelsdorf, and three sisters are residents of Reading - Mrs. Elizabeth EVANS and Mrs. Catharine ARNOLD, both widows, and Miss Mary MOORE, who had her home with the subject of this notice. She was the mother of seven children, four sons and three daughters, and three sons are the only survivors - William M., machinist, employed in the P & R shops, Arthur A., a conductor on the Reading Railroad between Allentown and Harrisburg; and Thomas M., clerk in the Reading post office. One of her daughters, Rebecca, was the wife of Capt. ANDREWS, who was killed in the battle of Antietam. Mrs. WELLS was a consistent member of Christ Episcopal congregation, and was a woman of noble deeds - kind to all around her and a faithful and loving mother... Her death, which occurred only a few hours after the anniversary of her marriage, will be sincerely mourned by a large circle of relatives and acquaintances. The funeral will take place on Friday afternoon, to proceed to the Charles Evans Cemetery.
