BELONGED to WILLIAM
MOORE of LEBANON, "father" of Mary Ann Doll who became wife of Dr. William Moore. Her obituary, as well as her sisters are pasted inside.
Her sister Catherine married Sam.
Guilford (well known engineer in Lebanon)
& so this was also the Guilford
Bible.

There are several little mementos
amongst the pages.

Guilford

In Lebanon, Pa., on the 8th instant, Mrs. CATHARINE ELIZABETH, wife of Simeon Guilford, E-q, aged 49 years and 6 days

Mrs. Guilford was a daughter of Conrad and Mary M. Doll, of Lancaster, Pa. In her infancy she was dedicated to God in the holy ordinance of Christian baptism. After her marriage with her present surviving husband, she was admitted to full communion with the Reformed Church, by the Rev. Henry Wagner. Her relation to the Church was not merely nominal, but real and saving. And whilst she loved the Church universal, she cherished a peculiar affection for the Church of her choice. In her death, the congregation of Lebanon lost one of its brightest ornaments, one of its most useful members.—Whilst she was characteristically humble, carefully avoiding all ostentation and show, she was nevertheless active and zealous, and always ready and willing to engage in every good work. Her whole heart was in the Church, in the cause of Christ, and never has her pastor known her to be absent from a single service on the Sabbath, or during the week, without a satisfactory reason. In the Sabbath School, in which she served as one of the superintendents, until disabled by declining health, she took a deep and lively interest. The Female Benevolent Society of the congregation, in whose organization she actively participated, and which she had served as President, shared largely in her Christian zeal and devoted efforts. Of this beloved sister it may be said with peculiar emphasis, "Behold, a mother in Israel has fallen!"

But to the bereaved family, the loss is especially great and most deeply felt. The devoted and affectionate wife and mother is no more. Still she lives in that better land, where the Lamb leads his flock unto living fountains of waters, and where God shall wipe all tears from their eyes. How sweet and comforting this assurance, especially to the afflicted family and friends, and how delightful the prospect of a blessed re-union in that "land of pure delight, where saints immortal reign!"

"Happy spirit! thou hast fled,
Where no grief can entrance find,
Lull'd to rest thy aching head,
Sooth'd the anguish of the mind!

Every tear is wiped away,
Sighs no more shall heave the breast;
Night is lost in endless day—
Sorrow—in eternal rest."

In Womelsdorf, Berks county, Pa., on the 8th inst., MARY ANN, wife of Dr. William Moore, aged 48 years, 6 months and 6 days.

Mrs. Moore, was a daughter of Conrad and Mary Doll, of Lancaster, Pa. In her infancy she was incorporated with the Church of Christ in holy baptism. In her childhood, she was removed to Lebanon, where she remained, until some time after her marriage. On profession of her faith in Christ, she was admitted to full communion with the Reformed Church, by the Rev. Henry Kroh, and retained her connection with the Lebanon congregation until her death. The deceased exhibited in her spirit and life the power and excellency of the religion of Christ in a very remarkable degree. Her piety was deep and intelligent, and though humble and unobtrusive, she was ever ready and willing to discharge all her duties appropriate to her sphere. As a wife and mother, she was all that could have been desired, as a friend courteous and kind, and full of sympathy and love towards the needy and distressed. She loved the tabernacles of the Lord—they were amiable in her sight. And though living at a considerable distance from her place of worship, she made it a point to be present whenever she could, and especially at communion occasions. Of these occasions she was wont to speak as feasts of love, and her longing, hungering and thirsting soul, was richly replenished with the gifts of divine grace.

Our beloved sister died as she lived—in the Lord. Retaining her faculties to the last, she called around her, her affectionate and deeply distressed husband and five children, and in a clear and distinct voice gave each one her dying counsel, bade them all an affectionate farewell and earnestly entreated them to meet her in heaven! Soon after, she sweetly fell asleep in Jesus. Verily,

"Jesus can make a dying bed, Feel soft as downy pillows are."

Her pastor, selected for her funeral discourse, the beautiful words in Rev. 7: 17, from which sixteen months ago he preached at the funeral of her beloved and sainted sister, Mrs. Catharine Guilford.

"No sickness, or sorrow, or pain,
Shall ever disquiet her now,
For death to her spirit was gain
Since Christ was her life when below."
